6 What did you enjoy the most about this year's festival?

The opportunity to view things online. I have heard about this Festival but don't live nearby so it has been good in the last couple of years to be able to view things online.

Live Music Also good quality events that didn't clash timewise so could get to attend everything I wanted to

Great to see live music for free. Banyers was a good venue with outdoor under cover seating!

Fine weather made watching and walking between venues easy. I have really missed live music so MusicFest was great

Pat Crilly at the Jolly Postie.

The music!

Fantastic music at the Banyar's

The music!

The quality of music and atmosphere in banyers on Sunday afternoon

Music

Live music in general, and the Boxwood Chessmen and Jeremy Harmer in particular

Sitting in the sunshine in the Old Bull's garden having a drink and a chat and listening to the music

Live music in the pub

The music

Being there in person

I like the fact, that the artists have created there own lyrics to many of the songs

The music at The Postie

Music festival

Great to have live music in Royston! Thank you

Good music

Seeing the Royston Town Band and Blue Sky Acoustic

Royston town band

Womensing, Music at the Golf Club and Paella on the market

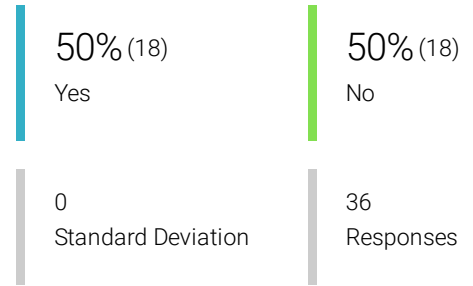

Being back in person after covid

The music

Diverse events of high quality

Amanda's talk was excellent

7 Have you attended the Royston Arts Festival in previous years?

9 Do you have any other comments or suggestions? Please leave empty if not.

Wish it was advertised a bit more. I found out by accident!

It's hard to get the amplification right if people are eating lunch. (Golf club). But the old bull didn't have as many people as they deserved later

Should have been outside in the gatfen

Great event

Just keep up the good work

Music in the park!

Improve advertising for events. Get on local radio, newspapers and social media. Spread the word. The events are nice, but people don't know about it.

Great idea to have bands and in pubs all around town

Really well organised this year

Really great events

Something is not quite hitting the spot in terms of advertising. I only noticed about the literary festival from a flier picked up at the cinema last week. If we had known earlier we could have arranged our weekend around it rather than struggle to fit it in.
