

Dinos and me!!!

One day I was getting my robot dog from the attic when I saw a time machine with rusted levers. I pulled a red lever and I jumped into the rusted machine.

Then I heard a rumbling sound. When I opened my eyes I saw a medium sized dinosaur!!! Then I heard it say that an asteroid was coming and fast!

Then it said that he could do magic. So I asked him to magic up a loader truck so we could catch it. He did it.

Just then, just there the asteroid fell on the loader truck.
Bang!!!

Then I jumped back in the time machine and pulled the lever. I was now back in the attic. But then a T-rex broke my house down!

NNNNNNNNNOOOOOOooooooooo!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Then I lose my voice.
