

Ja Wanna Come?

Come my darling, lets go seeking
Flowers blooming, birds a tweeting.

Riverbanks of busy vole
Daisy smiles and rabbit holes.

Lets smile a Springtime gaze of love
Watch playful dogs and dancing doves.

Free our minds in ebony nights
Caress with seasons sparkling light.

Lets stroll the bridges hand in hand
Nurture nature's great grandstand.

Swim in pools of silken mist
Splash away with cartwheeled kiss.

Lets lay upon earth's bed of grass

Ponder Pluto, wonder Mars.

Thank a lucky star or two

To share such moments, just with you.
