

Spring Twirled

Spring twirled
Through meadows sweet
Swayed and soared with the sparrow
Curtsied with the cow parsley
And danced and delighted in the daffodils
Then bounded on

Spring spun
In and out of gurgling streams
Bowed to the blossom
Arabesqued with the asters
And leapt on the lily pads with the Lightest of touches

Spring rose and fell
With the baby pink blossom
Skipped along the rows of sunflowers
Frolicked back through meadows sweet
Spring twirled
All the way home
