

FILM

The award-winning 'In the Beginning' animation was produced by BEEE Creative, directed by Shaun Clark - Flicker Mill and created with members of the Royston community. Synopsis: buried in darkness, a woman witnesses centuries passing by as she cries out to the world in search of her identity and place in the world. The 10 min 45 sec film will be played on a loop throughout the festival at Royston Museum from Thursday 22nd to

Sunday 25th between 10.00 - 16.00 each day. FREE

ROYSTON LIBRARY hosts a TALK, Q&A, and BOOK-SIGNING by author Jean Fullerton about her childhood based on her new book - 'A Child of the East End'. Glass of wine included in ticket. When: Thursday 22nd. Doors open 18.45 for 19.00 Where: Royston Library Tickets: £5 in person from Royston Library. hertfordshire.gov.uk/services

TALK

PERFORMANCE

Teechers: an award-winning version of John Godber's play is not one to be missed. Join Limitless in the heart of Royston for an evening of quality theatre that will have you falling out of your seats with laughter. Starts 19.30 and tickets are £12 from the Limitless website: <https://www.limitlessacademyarts.com/> CANCELLED - will now take place in October or November.