

THE ICE AGE IN NORTH HERTFORDSHIRE

Learn about the Ice Age in North Hertfordshire with a talk from celebrated historian and curator at North Herts Museum, Keith Fitzpatrick-Matthews.

Where: Royston Museum, 5 Lower King Street, Royston SG8 5AL Venue 20

When: 28 Sept 7.30 – 8.30pm £5 / £3 Membs Age: 16+. Limited availability. Book online: <https://www.roystonmuseum.org.uk/> FB: <https://www.facebook.com/roystonmuseum>

WILD WRITING

Nic Wilson is a writer, editor and Guardian Country Diarist based in North Hertfordshire. She works for BBC Gardeners' World Magazine and her writing has featured in many anthologies, journals and magazines including BBC Wildlife Magazine. This talk will be on Wild Writing which will cover her country diaries, nature in your local patch and how to get involved in supporting local wildlife. It will be followed by a short Q&A session.

Where: Royston Library, Market Hill, Royston SG8 9JN Venue 4

When: 28 Sept 7.15 for 7.30pm £5 inc glass of wine Age: 18+. Tickets available from Royston Library or online at hertfordshire.gov.uk/libraries

CADS PRESENTS TWO SHORT COMEDIES

CADS presents, on stage, the one-act comedy Don't Blame it on the Boots by Nick Warburton which won third prize at the 2023 Welwyn Drama Festival, coupled with a screening of the film Seven Movies by Roy Maddox which won multiple awards at the 2021 "virtual" Welwyn Drama Festival during lockdown

Where: King James Academy (Senior Site) Garden Walk, Royston SG8 7JH Venue 28

When: 28 Sept 7.30 – 10.00pm £8 Age 18+ Limited availability. Book online: <https://www.cadsroyston.org.uk/> FB: <https://www.facebook.com/cadsroyston>

RETURN TO CREATIVE ROYSTON HOMEPAGE: HERE