

PERFORMANCE / FILM

FILM: LITTLE ENGLISH + Q&A

A laugh-out-loud story of a dysfunctional Punjabi family in the pressure cooker life of a terraced suburban home in Slough. Newly arrived from India, naive Simmy has come to marry the family's eldest son Raj, who absconds, leaving Simmy effectively kidnapped by her domineering mother-in-law and seeking escape with the help of other disgruntled members of the family. Q&A may feature members of the cast and production team.

Where: Royston Picture Palace, Town Hall, Melbourn Street, Royston SG8 7DA Venue 1

When: Sun 24 Sep, 2pm Q&A 3.50pm £5 - £8 Age: 12A.

Book online: <https://roystonpicturepalace.org.uk/> or pay on the door.

CADS PRESENTS TWO SHORT COMEDIES

CADS presents, on stage, the one-act comedy Don't Blame it on the Boots by Nick Warburton which won third prize at the 2023 Welwyn Drama Festival, coupled with a screening of the film Seven Movies by Roy Maddox which won multiple awards at the 2021 "virtual" Welwyn Drama Festival during lockdown

Where: King James Academy (Senior Site) Garden Walk, Royston SG8 7JH Venue 28

When: Fri 29 & Sat 30 Sept 7.30 – 10.00pm £8 Age 18+ Limited availability. Book online:

<https://www.cadsroyston.org.uk/> FB: <https://www.facebook.com/cadsroyston>

ON THE HEATH / ON THE EDGE

On the heath: the beauty of Therfield Heath captured over a decade in snapshots, music and birdsong.

On the edge: over lockdown Therfield Heath provided an escape. Music swirls to pictures from the edge (One Hill) as townsfolk tell why this wild spot is so important to them.

Where: Online at p-arts.co.uk/media Twitter: https://twitter.com/p_artsuk

When: Sat 30 Sept & Sun 1 Oct FREE All ages

RETURN TO CREATIVE ROYSTON HOMEPAGE: HERE